Dear Hiring Manager!

I am writing to apply for the Warehouse Worker position at your company. With extensive experience in logistics and warehouse operations—particularly during my time at DHL and Postnord TPL in Gothenburg—I have developed strong skills in organization, efficiency, and teamwork.

My background includes managing loading and unloading goods, inventory handling, and packaging. I am a fast learner, highly adaptable, and physically fit for demanding work environments. I thrive in high-paced settings and always ensure accuracy and safety in all tasks.

I would be excited to bring my dedication and reliability to your warehouse team. I am available for an interview at your earliest convenience and look forward to the opportunity to contribute to your company.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Best,

Mohamed Nuh
